MAN AFTER THEIR OWN HEART.

Convivial Gentlemen Realized They Had Found a Brother.

Not many days ago two men who had dined not wisely but too well boarded one of the pay-as-you-enter cars at the Grand Central.

The car started with a very violent suddenness—so violent that the two cheery gentlemen were thrown off their balance, landing in a heap on top of a very solemn gentleman on one of the seats. This individual had been in the car for some time, and had preserved an austere solemnity of demeanor that was most impressive.

At once the two men who had lost their balance became profuse in their apologies to the solemn one.

"Oh, 'm shoshorry—please 'scuse me," requested one.

"Beg pardon—couldn't—hic—help-myself," said the other.

The solemn gentleman, who had listened with magisterial severity, now opened his mouth in turn and remarked benignly:

"Oh, thashallright. Car sharted like—hic—rocket—thashallright."

For a moment they looked at him dazed; then their expressions changed to delighted surprise. In him they had recognized a brother.

And when they got off a few blocks further on, in a region of many cafes, their party consisted of three.—N. Y. Times.

Source of the Crop.

The bishop of Richmond told a good story the other day about his father. "He was a farmer," said Dr. P. K. Leine, "and a nice old gentleman, too. One year he took it into his head to grow flax, so he sowed the seed, and, having a good crop, sent it away to be made into a tablecloth. Some time later when seated at dinner he remarked to a lady near him: 'Do you know, I grew this tablecloth myself.' 'Did you, really?' she answered, with the greatest surprise. 'How ever did you manage it?' 'Well—most mysteriously—if you'll promise not to tell anyone, I'll tell you. I—planted a napkin.'"

The Philosopher of Folly.

"I'd rather have my rich relatives pony up while they're alive," says the Philosopher of Folly, "than to depend on what they are going to leave me. In other words, I can't take the will for the deed."

REVOLUTION IN CHINA.

Plot to Assassinate Prominent Officials Has Been Unearthed.

Amoy.—The revolutionist plot which was unearthed Saturday causes great anxiety, the government officials fearing that its ramifications may be far-reaching. The object of the revolutionists was the assassination of high Chinese officials during the reception to the officers of the American fleet. Extraordinary precautions are being taken and will be extended during the stay of the fleet here, and particularly during the functions. Viceroy Song of Fukien province, who arrived here Saturday on the cruiser Hai Yung, spent the night aboard the ship.

Disastrous Storms in the North.

Medicine Hat, Saskatchewan.—The first trains since Monday reached Hat from the east last Saturday evening. Riders got in from the district south, stretching to the United States border, with fearful tales of hardships created by the storm. Donald Cameron, sheep-herder, with two others, were caught and forced to leave their sheep to perish and seek safety themselves. Cameron, however, became exhausted and died. After sixty hours without sleep or nourishment, the other two reached a ranch in safety.

Sailors Full of Hospitality.

Tokio.—The Japanese naval men are loud in their praise of the behavior of the American sailors. The last hours of the bluejackets' stay ashore, however, was rather disastrous to the record of non-absentees. Since midnight Saturday twenty-six men have been reported missing, but the majority of these were picked up Sunday and will be placed on board the Yankton which sailed on Tuesday. No actual case of desertion has occurred, the sailors simply being overcome by excess of Japanese hospitality.

A Double Tragedy.

Gulfport, Miss.—In a shooting affray here, a cowboy, belonging to a wild west show, and a Gulfport policeman lost their lives. Lon Selby, the cowboy, is alleged to have ridden into a crowd of negroes, beating them over the head with the butt of his revolver. Policeman Lee Vardance started in pursuit of Selby, and the two men were lost to view in a cloud of dust. Later their bodies were found near the railroad, each body bearing a single bullet wound, and each man's revolver containing one empty shell.

NIGHT RIDERS TO FACE JURY

Tennessee Authorities Determined That Members of Mob Shall be Severely Punished.

Ten Men Are Under Arrest for the Murder of Captain Rankin, and It is Hoped to Secure Conviction of Every Member of the Band.

Memphis, Tenn.—What may happen as a result of the investigation of "night rider" depredations in the northwestern section of this state is a matter of conjecture. With the convening of the circuit court for Ohio county in special session at Union City, formally to investigate the death of Quentin Rankin, who was killed by a "night rider" band in the vicinity of Reelfoot lake, that section will be under complete military domination. Five companies of the state national guard will be at the disposal of Colonel Tatom. To aid the militia, the adjoining counties have been drawn on for posses of picked men.

In the Reelfoot lake district, the lake itself is the source of contention. It was asserted by those living in the vicinity that it was their right to ply their vocation as fishermen in the water, without molestation, while the owner of the land upon which it is situated took an opposite view. In the courts the latter, the Western Tennessee Land company, of which Captain Rankin and Colonel R. Z. Taylor of Trenton were the organizers and are largely interested, were upheld.

Then followed "night rider" warnings, threatening death to those who opposed the wishes of the band. It was upon the first visit in many months to the lake region that Captain Rankin was killed. Of a number of men arrested, ten are being held, and it is promised that when the grand jury is convened, sufficient evidence will be furnished to secure the indictment of every member of the "night riders" organization. The sessions of the court will be under military protection.

Russian Government Determined to Get Hold of Jan Janoff Pouren.

New York.—Jan Janoff Pouren, the Russian refugee who has been in jail here many weeks awaiting the outcome of proceedings brought by the Russian government to have him extradited to Russia to answer charges of arson, attempted murder and burglary, had one minute of freedom on Monday. A letter being received by United States Marshal Henkle from Assistant Secretary of State Adee stating that the state department had declined to issue a warrant for the surrender of Pouren to Russia, Pouren was discharged from custody. While he was thanking the marshal he was re-arrested upon a new warrant issued by Judge Holt in the United States court upon an application of counsel for the Russian government.

Captain Hains Makes Insanity Plea.

New York.—Temporary insanity will be the defense of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., who killed William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht club landing last August. In the supreme court at Flushing, L. I., on Monday, Judge Garretson overruled the demurrer entered by attorneys for the defense in the case of T. Jenkins Hains, brother of the captain, which set up the claim that the indictment was defective, in that it charged Jenkins Hains as both principal and accessory before the fact. Jenkins Hains was then called to the bar and pleaded to the indictment not guilty.

Fail for Half a Million.

Chicago.—Bankruptcy proceedings were begun in the United States district court here on Monday against the Battle Creek Breakfast Food company, manufacturers of Egg-O-See. The petition asserts the liabilities to be from $400,000 to $500,000, and the assets $200,000. The creditors who began the proceedings and the amounts of their claims are: Chicago Savings Bank & Trust company, $25,000, secured by notes; Charles H. Fuller company, Chicago, $18,640, and the Stretcher Lithographing company of New York, $46,111.

Unions Cannot Fine Members.

Boston.—The supreme judicial court of Massachusetts, making a permanent injunction against several labor unions, has ruled that labor unions cannot impose fines on their members in order to force them to go on strike. The decision was rendered on a petition asking for an injunction against the Bricklayers' and Stone Masons' Benevolent unions, restraining them from imposing a fine of $100 each on two members of the union who had refused to go out on strike.

CASTRO PREPARING FOR FIGHT WITH NETHERLANDS

It is Generally Believed He is Only Bluffing, as He Suggests Amicable Settlement of Difficulty.

Caracas, Venezuela.—President Castro, in his answer to the second Netherlands note, has declined to revoke his decree of May 14, prohibiting the transshipment of goods from Venezuelan ports at Curacao, which has been so obnoxious to the people of that island.

This answer was made September 12. The president expressed surprise that The Netherlands government should ask for the revocation of this decree after acknowledging Venezuela's right to issue it. Continuing he asks The Netherlands to send a confidential agent to Caracas to arrange the terms of an amicable settlement of the difficulties between the two governments.

The chief of the artillery branch of the Venezuelan army has completed the preparations for the defense of La Guira. In anticipation of a naval demonstration by Holland before the port on November 14, shells have been distributed to the modern guns installed in the forts on the mountain side above La Guira. President Castro's health is still delicate and causes anxiety to his friends.

LAURIER HOLDS REINS.

Present Premier Returns to Power for Another Five Years.

Ottawa, Ont.—Elections for the house of commons were held on Monday throughout Canada. Of the 221 constituencies in the Dominion only two, Rouville, Ont., and South York, Ont., returned members by acclamation. In all the others, with the exception of five, which hold their elections later, there were contests. The returns show that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the present premier, who in the last house had a majority of 66, will be returned to power for another five years with a safe, although slightly reduced majority. French-Canadian Quebec remained loyal to the premier, electing a membership almost solidly Liberal.

Up till 1900 a great deal of the Job Printing of Spanish Fork was sent out of town, but since then the tide has turned, and today we do Job Printing for other towns. Why? because today we have new presses, new type, new cutter, new rules, new boarder, new quads, new slugs, new cases, new motor, new leaders, new inks, new ideas.

Above is a fellow who loves his home town so much but sends his Job Printing out of town, and he always knocks his home paper to the editor's back; his very look is HYPOCRACY. It's a credit to be at outs with such as he.

P. S.—We print butter paper every Saturday. Please guide yourself accordingly.
THE SPANISH FORK PRESS

JOB PRINTING We can do the finest class of printing, and we can do that class just a little cheaper than the other fellow. Wedding invitations, letter heads, bill heads, sale bills, statements, dodgers, cards, etc., all receive the same careful treatment—just a little better than seems necessary. Prompt delivery always.
